

Disruptive Public Health with Catrina J. Sparkman

Theatre Artist, Publisher and Authorpreneur

Preserving Black Memories:

*How The Creator's
Cottage Combats
Alzheimer's Disease*

Wednesday, February 26 at 4:30pm
LU Wriston Art Center Auditorium

As Artistic Director of the Creator's Cottage, a creative arts maker space for artists and writers of color, Sparkman harnesses the creative power of artistic storytelling to promote dementia and Alzheimer's disease prevention among Black older adults. Join us in Wriston to hear more about the Memory Collectors Storytelling Project!

Displays and sale of the work will be at Wriston. Scan QR code to learn more about Sparkman and how to support the Creator's Cottage.